ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION I - ELIGIBILITY: Any staff member of any organization, as defined under these By-Laws, sharing general interests in the objectives of the Destination Marketing Association of North Dakota shall be eligible for membership.

Membership shall be granted by the Association at a regular or special meeting, or by written agreement of the majority of members in the interim between meetings of the members.

Application for membership shall be made in writing. It shall state the name and address of the organization applying for membership as well as the name, address and occupation of the individual(s) who will represent the applicant in the affairs of the Association. The annual membership rate shall be set by the members of the organization. There shall be two types of membership - Active and Associate members.

Active Members: To be eligible for Active Membership in the Association, a member must be employed by an organization in a given community whose sole purpose is the solicitation and service of conventions, visitors and/or meetings. The voting members of the organization must be vested with the authority to represent the organization in activities and affairs of the Association, and to make commitments to and agreements with the Association that will bind on that organization. Each Active Member shall have one vote at all annual and special meetings of the Association. Active Members must have a lodging tax as a funding source. Organizations with more than one active member shall have one vote per member.

Associate Members: Associate Membership in the Association is open to any individual or organization whose primary focus is the promotion of tourism. The annual membership rate for Associate Members shall be one half (1/2) the annual membership rate for Active Members. Associate Members may serve on Association Committees, but shall have no vote at annual or special meetings of the Association.
